The Cynthia Democrat favors a curfew law that will drive in doors by 7 o'clock every urchin under thirty years of age. The Vanceburg Sun thinks a bell put on every male citizen of that town so he could be located at night would be a good thing.

An Established DRY GOODS BUSINESS FOR SALE.

The old and well-known firm of Smedley & Butler, of Millersburg, Ky., is now in progress of liquidation owing to the assignment of J. G. Smedley. All of the large stock of dry goods, notions, fancy goods, domestics, boots, shoes, hats, caps and every article kept by a first-class store is now being offered at cost for cash. This is a fine opportunity for any one wishing to engage in the dry goods business and assume control of a house already established and well-known throughout Central Kentucky. Any one wishing to buy the stock as a whole should address

A Brave Gate-Keeper.

A TOLL-GATE on the Lawrenceburg turnpike near Frankfort was blown up by dynamite early Sunday morning. The gate-keeper stretched a rope across the road and went on collecting toll, although warned that if he did so the house would be blown up. The gate at this point has been destroyed and replaced several times.
